Terms and Conditions

Please review the terms and conditions completely. By providing an authorized signature on the booth catering order form and by initialing the terms and conditions you are agreeing to the following:

At the Music City Center, the Food and Beverage Department does more than craft compelling menus and provide booth catering. We have the experience, processes and people to execute Craveable Experiences and Raveable Results for our clients and our guests. If you do not see exactly what you are looking for above, please reach out to your catering sales manager for additional menu items.

Centerplate at the Music City Center retains the exclusive right to provide, control and maintain all food and beverage services throughout the facility. Absolutely no outside food or beverage can be brought to the facility to be consumed or distributed to staff or attendees. All food and beverage must be purchased through Centerplate at the Music City Center.

PAYMENTS: Payment in full and signed contract must be rendered prior to food service being provided.

CANCELLATION: If cancellation occurred within 10 days of event 100% of the ordered items will be charged.

The Music City Center Food and Beverage Department does not provide serving tables or electrical for Booth Delivery Service. Arrangements should be made in advance of delivery with the official show decorator, or with your Music City Center Catering Sales Manager.

25% Additional Charge will be added to all orders received within 10 days of the event date. 23% Catering Service Fee, 9.25% Sales Tax and .50% Zone Fee will be added to all orders. Prices are subject to change without notice.

Payment Authorization & Fees: Your signature on this form authorizes Centerplate at the Music City Center to charge the credit card provided for payment of services ordered on this form. The Music City Center accepts a company check (payable to Centerplate) or Visa, MasterCard, American Express, and Discover as credit card payment options via mail or phone.
